Health Plan Board Awards Special Recognition

[MARQUETTE]—The Board of Directors of the Upper Peninsula Health Plan has presented awards of special recognition to John Schon of the Dickinson County Healthcare System and Sheryl Waudby of the health plan.

The awards were presented during the annual meeting of the health plan’s stockholders on March 26 in Marquette.

Schon is the chief executive officer of the Dickinson County Healthcare System in Iron Mountain. He has been a member of the health plan’s Board of Directors since 1997. The board gave him the special recognition for commitment to improving health care for the residents of the Upper Peninsula and demonstrated ongoing support of the Upper Peninsula Health Plan.

Waudby has been the health plan’s pharmacy director since 2003. The Board of Directors gave her the special recognition for positive financial impact on the Upper Peninsula Health Plan via formulary management and her contributions to the Upper Peninsula Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee.

The health plan and its provider network manage the health care for 26,000 Upper Peninsula residents, serving all 15 counties in the region.
